

Everyday Saver

Additional Conditions – November 2020

These are additional terms and conditions for your Everyday Saver. That means they add to the main agreement between you and us (Barclays Bank UK PLC) set out in the Customer Agreement.

If anything in these conditions disagrees with the Customer Agreement, it will be these additional conditions we'll follow.

The terms applying to Everyday Saver are governed by English law.

About the Everyday Saver

- The Everyday Saver is an instant access account.
- You can pay in and withdraw money whenever you wish.
- You can have more than one Everyday Saver account.

Who can hold an Everyday Saver?

- To hold an Everyday Saver, you must be resident in the UK and at least 16 years old.
- You can hold it yourself or in joint names.
- Everyday Saver is also open to trustees of personal funds, and to executors and administrators of estates.

Payments in and out

- You can open the account with just £1, and put in more money at any time.
- The maximum amount you can have in any one account is £10,000,000.
- You can take money out whenever you wish without giving notice.
- If you would like an ATM card for the account, please ask us.
- You can't set up direct debits or standing orders from an Everyday Saver account.

Interest and your Everyday Saver

- You'll find the current interest rates in our interest rate leaflet, on barclays.co.uk/savings/interest-rates or such other replacement website that we specify. If we do this, we will let you know where to find the information. Or you can just ask us.
