Interest

8. The standard interest rate is a tracker rate set at a margin above or below the base rate. The standard interest rate will change immediately following a change in the relevant base rate.
  - a. For sterling accounts the base rate is the Bank of England base rate.
  - b. For euro accounts the base rate is the European Central Bank Main Refinancing Operations Rate.
  - c. For US dollar accounts the base rate is the US Federal Funds Rate.
9. Standard interest will be paid quarterly.
10. We will pay additional arrangement interest (AAI) for every 12 months the Account remains open. We will calculate and pay AAI on the first Working Day of the month following completion of the full 12 month period and annually thereafter. We will calculate AAI on the daily cleared balance of the Account where the balance falls within the minimum and maximum balance thresholds for AAI as agreed and notified to you at Account opening. The thresholds reflect a lower and upper target balance for your Account.
11. The AAI rate and the minimum and maximum balance thresholds are fixed for 12 months. We may vary the AAI rate or the minimum and maximum balance thresholds at the annual review and you will be given notice of any changes in accordance with our Terms.
12. If your Account balance falls below the minimum balance threshold for AAI, we will not calculate any AAI for that calendar month.
13. If your account balance exceeds the maximum balance threshold for AAI, we will calculate AAI for that day on the maximum balance threshold for AAI.

14. For example, if we agree the minimum balance threshold for AAI is £9 million and the maximum balance threshold for AAI is £11 million, we will calculate AAI on £11 million even if your balance is higher than this. If your Account balance falls below £9 million, we will not calculate any AAI for that calendar month.
