

Reserve Account

Additional conditions – November 2020

These are additional terms and conditions for your Reserve Account. That means they add to the main agreement between you and us (Barclays Bank UK Plc) set out in the Customer Agreement. If anything in these conditions disagrees with the Customer Agreement, it will be these additional conditions we'll follow.

The terms applying to the Reserve Account are governed by English law.

About the Reserve Account

- The Reserve Account is a savings account provided by Barclays Bank UK PLC. It lets you access your money at any time.
- It's available in sterling, US dollars or euros.
- You can't set up payments via standing order or direct debit from a Reserve Account.

Who can hold a Reserve Account?

- To hold a Reserve Account, you must be at least 16 years old.
- The account must be for your sole or joint personal use.
- The account is also open to personal trusts and personal wealth vehicles.
- You can't use the account for business. It's not available to financial associations, registered charities, societies or other kinds of association.

Payments in and out

- There is a minimum balance of £1, $1 or €1.
- You can have up to a maximum of £10m, $15m or €10m.
- If you've got more than one Reserve Account in a single currency, the maximum for your currency applies to your accounts added together.
- If you go above the maximum, we may transfer the excess to a current account in the same name as the account. We'll let you know before we do this.
- You can take money out whenever you like without giving notice

Your Reserve Account and interest

- You'll find the interest rates in our interest rate leaflet or on barclays.co.uk/wealth-management/importantinformation/rates-and-fees or such other replacement website that we specify. If we do this, we will let you know where to find the information. Or you can just ask us.

If you change your mind

- If you change your mind about an account you opened in the UK and want to close it right away, you can do this without charge, and without any further obligations relating to the account. You must tell us in writing, sent to your usual contact within 14 days of the day you opened your account, or of the day you received these additional conditions, whichever is later.

Additional information

¹Scheme responsible for the protection of your eligible deposit

Your eligible deposit is covered by a statutory Deposit Guarantee Scheme. If insolvency of your bank, building society or credit union should occur, your eligible deposits would be repaid up to £85,000 by the Deposit Guarantee Scheme.

²General limit of protection

If a covered deposit is unavailable because a bank, building society or credit union is unable to meet its financial obligations, depositors are repaid by a Deposit Guarantee Scheme. This repayment covers at maximum £85,000 per bank, building society or credit union. This means that all eligible deposits at the same bank, building society or credit union are added up in order to determine the coverage level. If, for instance, a depositor holds a savings account with £80,000 and a current account with £20,000, he or she will only be repaid £85,000.

This method will also be applied if a bank, building society or credit union operates under different trading names. Barclays Bank UK PLC also trades under Barclays, Barclays Business Banking, Barclays Premier Banking, Barclays Wealth Management and Tesco Bank.

This means that all eligible deposits with one or more of these trading names are in total covered up to £85,000.

In some cases eligible deposits which are categorised as "temporary high balances" are protected above £85,000 for six months after the amount has been credited or from the moment when such eligible deposits become legally transferable. These are eligible deposits connected with certain events including:

- certain transactions relating to the depositor's current or prospective only or main residence or dwelling;
- a death, or the depositor's marriage or civil partnership, divorce, retirement, dismissal, redundancy or invalidity;
- the payment to the depositor of insurance benefits or compensation for criminal injuries or wrongful conviction.

More information can be obtained under www.fscs.org.uk

³Limit of protection for joint accounts

In case of joint accounts, the limit of £85,000 applies to each depositor. However, eligible deposits in an account to which two or more persons are entitled as members of a business partnership, association or grouping of a similar nature, without legal personality, are aggregated and treated as if made by a single depositor for the purpose of calculating the limit of £85,000.

4Reimbursement

The responsible Deposit Guarantee Scheme is the Financial Services Compensation Scheme, 10th Floor Beaufort House, 15 St Botolph Street, London EC3A 7QU, Tel: 0800 678 1100 or 020 7741 4100, email: ICT@fscs.org.uk. It will repay your eligible deposits (up to £85,000) within ten working days from 1 January 2021 to 31 December 2023; and within seven working days from 1 January 2024 onwards, save where specific exceptions apply.

Where the FSCS cannot make the repayable amount available within 7 working days, it will, from 1 June 2016 until 31 December 2023, ensure that you have access to an appropriate amount of your covered deposits to cover the cost of living (in the case of a depositor which is an individual) or to cover necessary business expenses or operating costs (in the case of a depositor which is not an individual or a large company) within 5 working days of a request.

If you have not been repaid within these deadlines, you should contact the Deposit Guarantee Scheme since the time to claim reimbursement may be barred after a certain time limit. Further information can be obtained under www.fscs.org.uk

Other important information

In general, all retail depositors and businesses are covered by Deposit Guarantee Schemes. Exceptions for certain deposits are stated on the website of the responsible Deposit Guarantee Scheme. Your bank, building society or credit union will also inform you of any exclusions from protection which may apply. If deposits are eligible, the bank, building society or credit union shall also confirm this on the statement of account.

Financial Services Compensation Scheme Exclusions List

A deposit is excluded from protection if:

(1) The holder and any beneficial owner of the deposit have never been identified in accordance with money laundering requirements. For further information, contact your bank, building society or credit union.
